A Fancy of Falling Leaves

Fantasia for six-course Renaissance lute in G

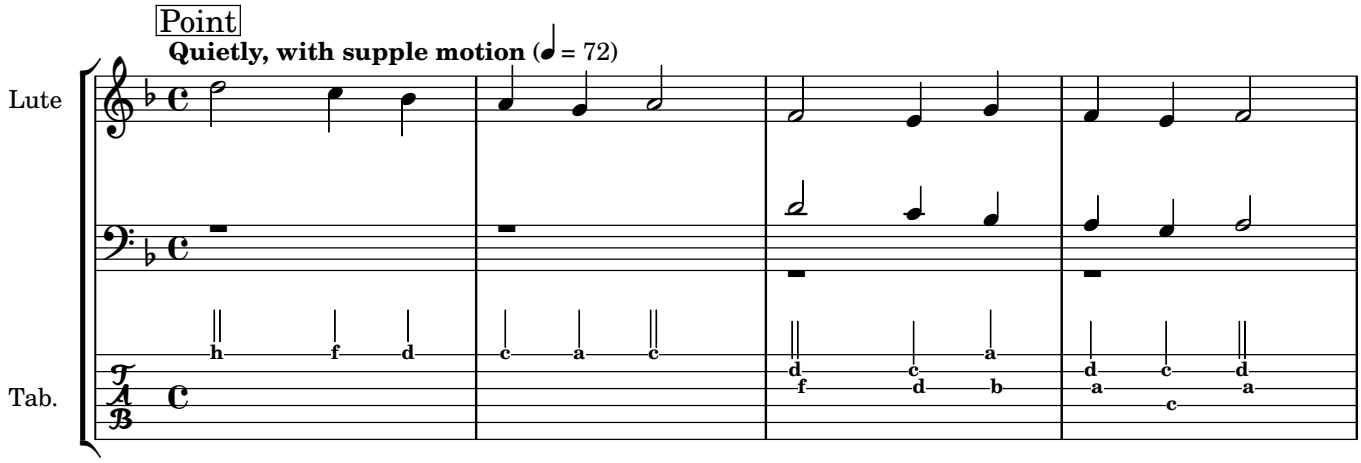

In the manner of John Dowland — Original composition

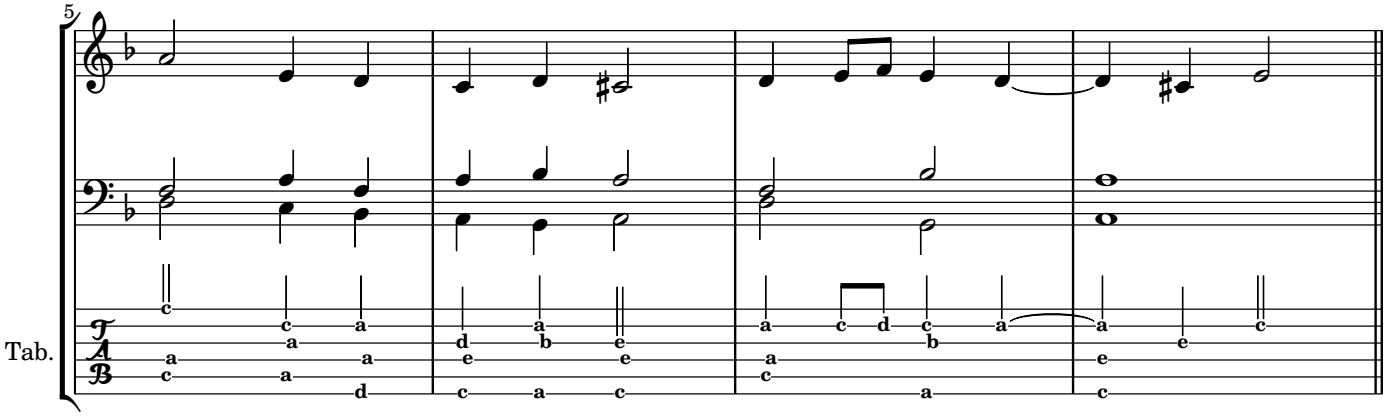

One lute; both notation staves at sounding pitch. Through-composed, without repeats.

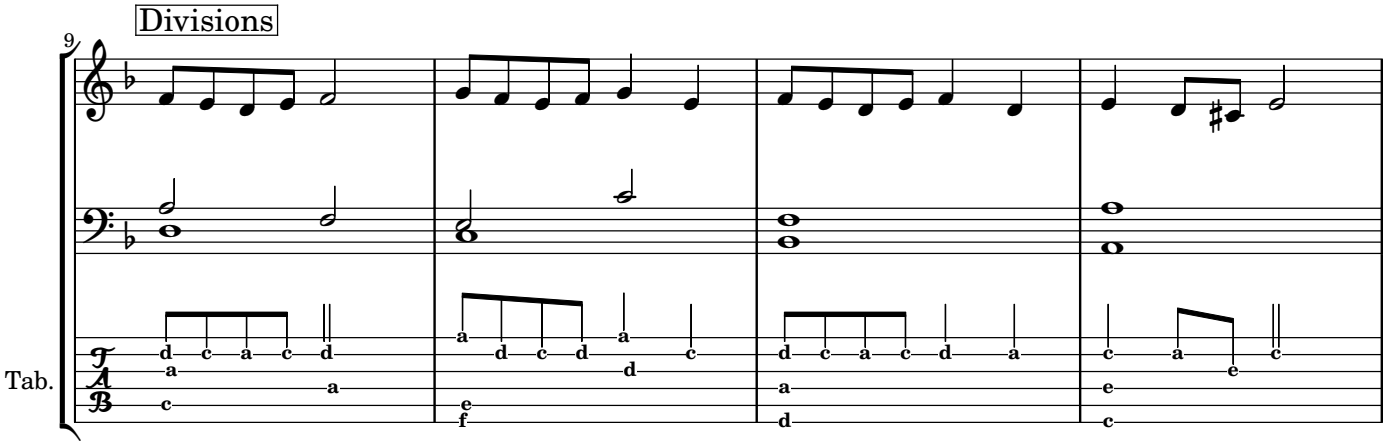

Tuning, low to high: G c f a d' g'. French tab: top line = highest course; a = open.

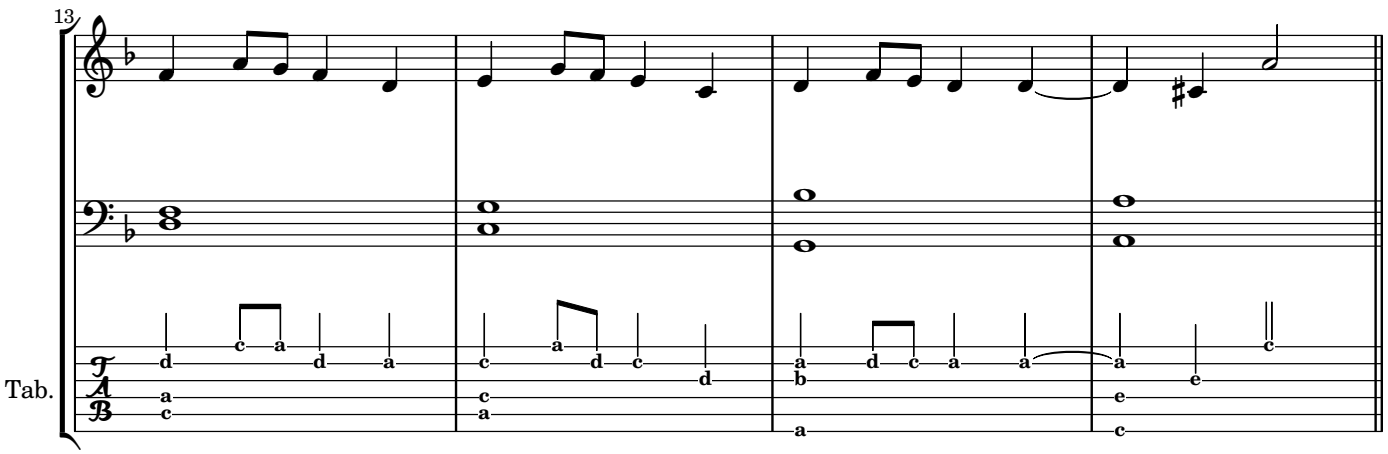

Tab stems follow the upper voice; sustain lower notes for their written durations.

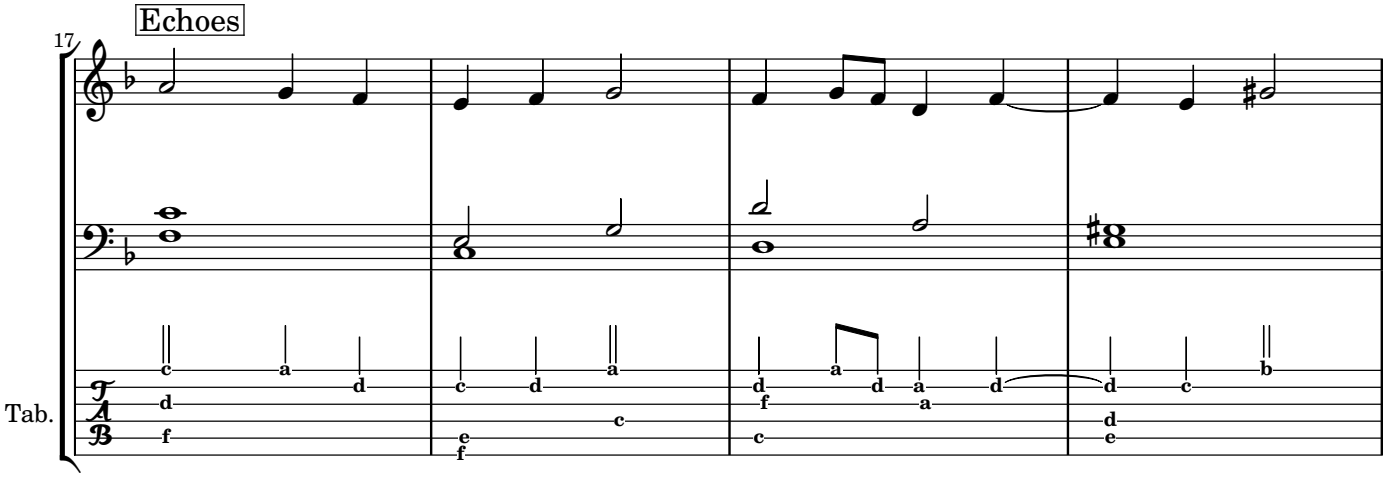

Let each entrance speak; keep the pulse quiet and the divisions flowing.
