A Pavan for the Waning Light

For six-course Renaissance lute in G

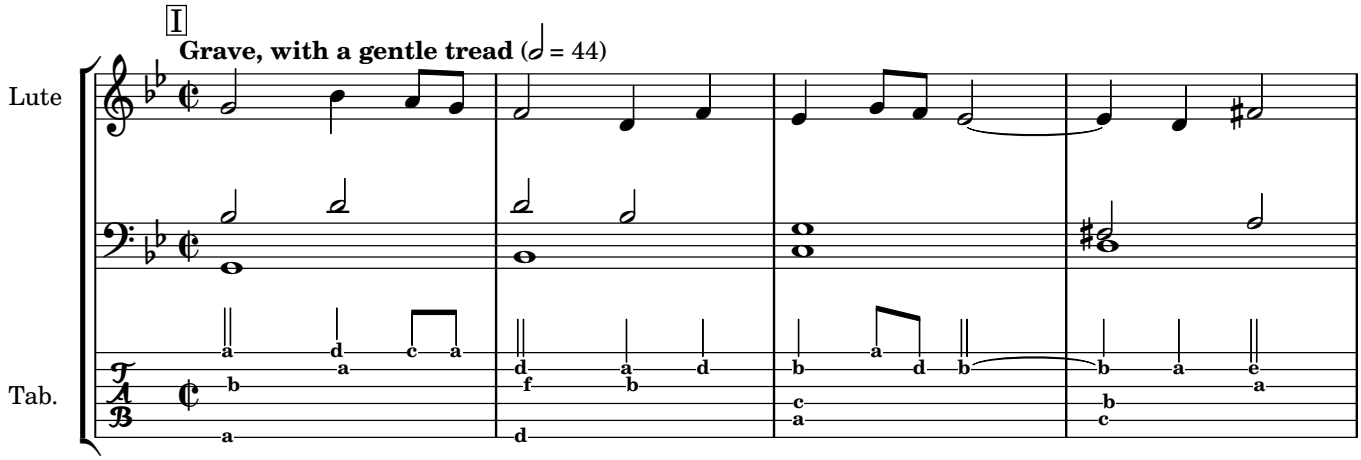

In the manner of John Dowland — Original composition

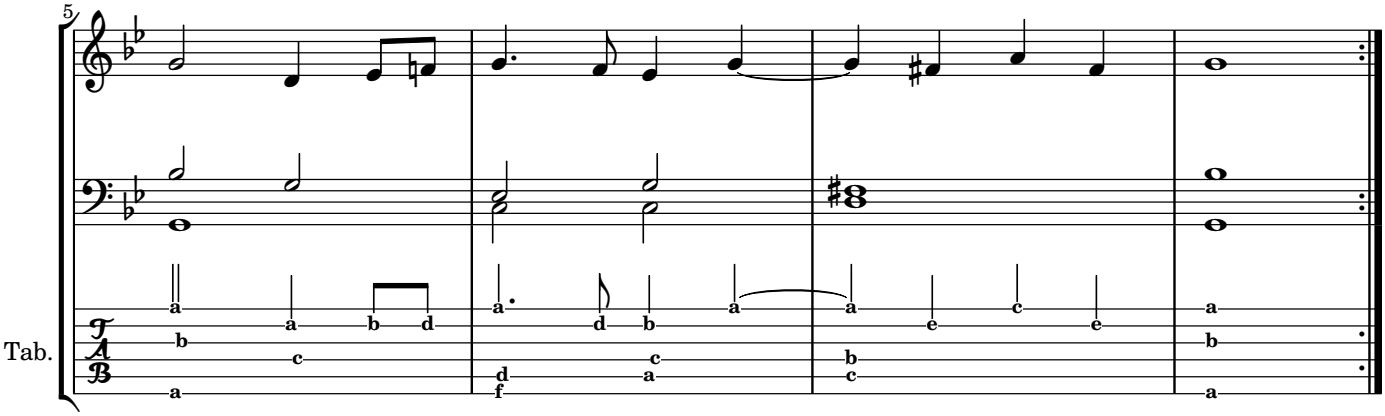

One lute; both notation staves at sounding pitch. Observe each repeat.

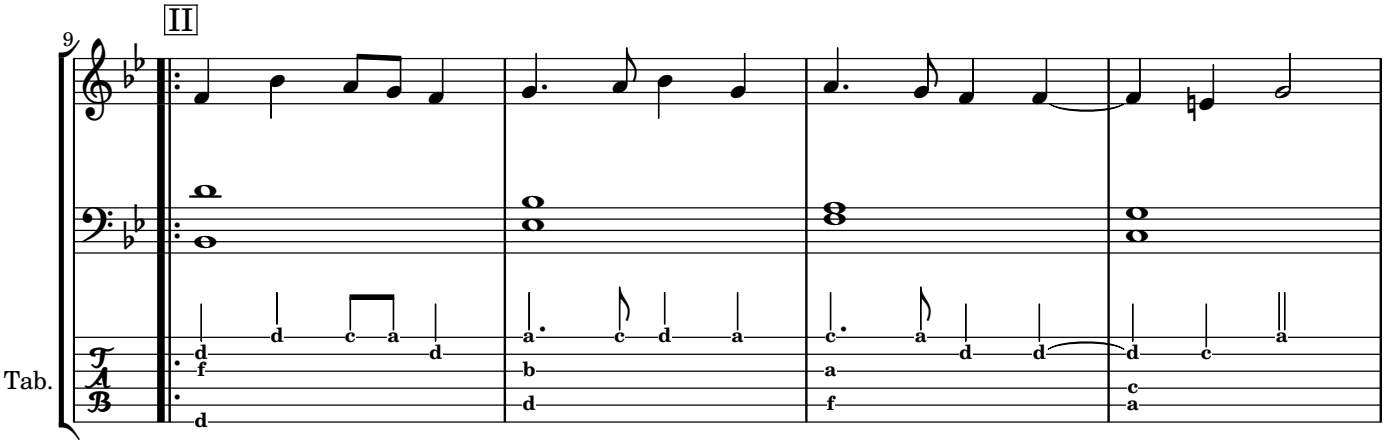

Tuning, low to high: G c f a d' g'. French tab: top line = highest course; a = open.

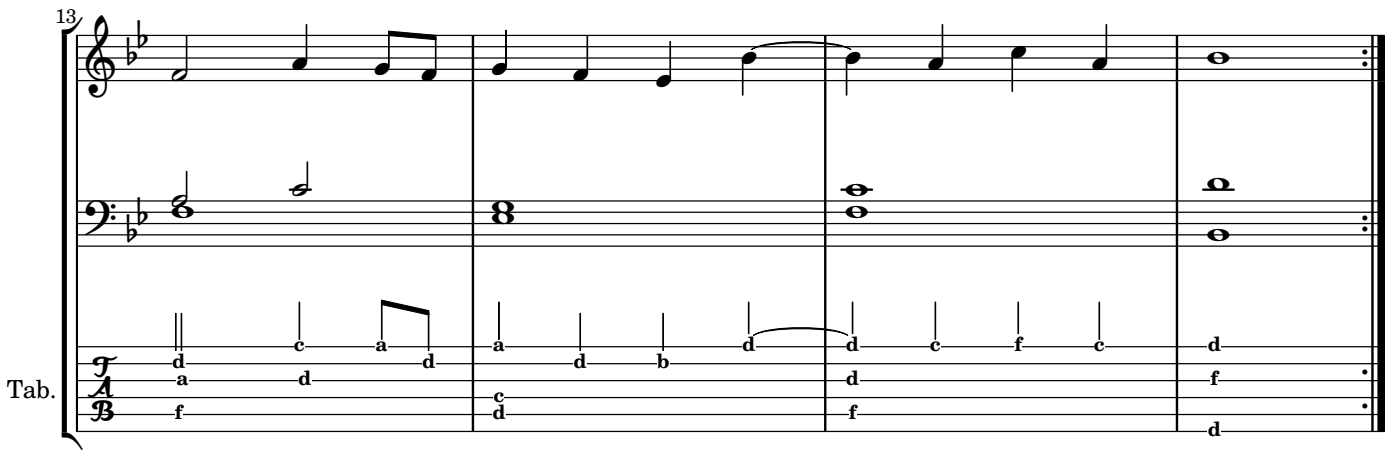

Tab stems follow the upper voice; sustain lower notes for the durations shown in the score.

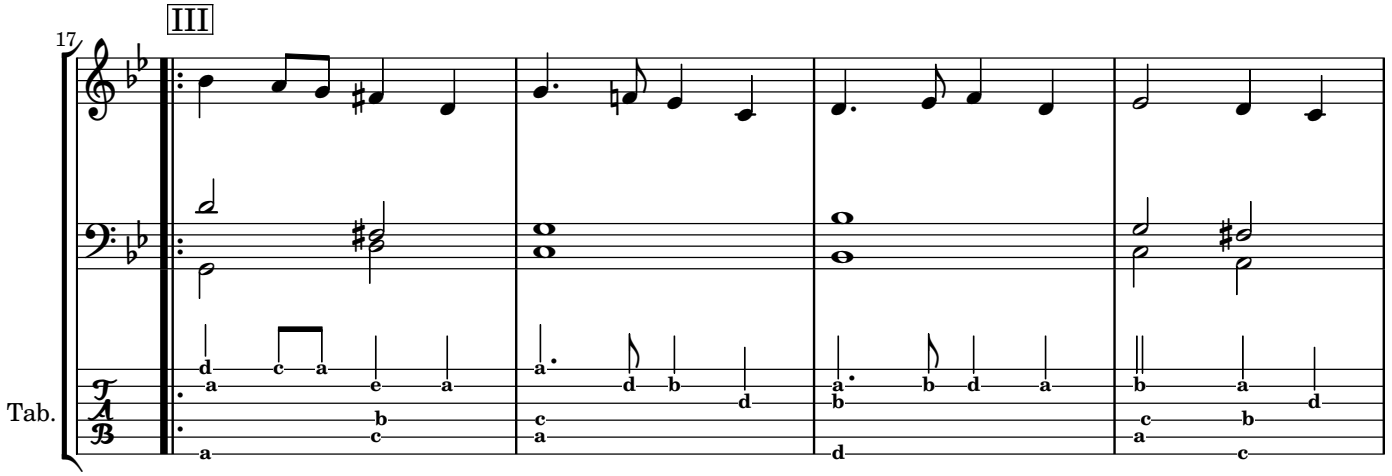

Let the voices ring; keep the pulse unhurried. Small graces may be added on repeats.
