The Moth's Galliard

For six-course Renaissance lute in G

In the manner of John Dowland — Original composition

One lute; both notation staves at sounding pitch. Observe each repeat.

Tuning, low to high: G c f a d' g'. French tab: top line = highest course; a = open.

Tab stems follow the upper voice; retain lower notes for their written durations.

Lift the dance lightly. Feel each strain's last two bars as three broad steps in two.
